- Discuss the course progression and attendance requirements
- Learn about your obligations and rights
- Enrol in your courses and finalise your Timetable (Orientation is compulsory for all new students)
- The Academic Calendar is located on MIT AMS (Academic Management System)

Enrolment means officially becoming an MIT student. Commencing students must seek approval from admissions team, if they are unable to enroll on time.

Course enrolments will take place on campus for onshore students during Orientation Week. Please refer to the Orientation guide for more specific Information.

Documents Required For Enrolment

- Passport
- Confirmation of Enrolment (CoE)
- Academic Transcripts from Year 11 and 12
- IELTS or equivalent test score
- Original copies of all previous academic qualifications
- Overseas Students Health Cover (OSHC) certificate

Refer to the Student Handbook for more information MIT Handbook

Cost of Living

The cost of living depends upon your background, individual lifestyle, and expectations. However, most students manage approximately $24,505 per year. This is exclusive of tuition fees and lifestyle expenses but cover accommodation, food, public transport clothing, entertainment, books, stationery, and incidental expenses

For more information, please visit 'Study in Australia' website

Attendance

Attending face-to-face classes is an important element of successful studies and regular attendance at all lectures and tutorials is expected. The attendance of each student is monitored at MIT for course progression and student welfare purposes

MIT's Learning Management System Moodle is a Learning Platform and assists with effective course management and personalised learning. Within this system you will find Orientation information, event registrations, unit descriptions and your weekly study material

Academic Management System
AMS helps with online enrolments and timetable management. Appointments can also be made with academic staff via this system

Textbooks

Your lecturer will outline required textbooks for each of your units in Week 1 of trimester.
Prescribed textbooks can be purchased online from Booktopia

Academic Progress

The academic progress of each student enrolled at MIT is governed by MIT's Student Academic Progress Policy and Procedure.
Students are responsible for their own academic progress.

Unsatisfactory academic performance means:

- Failing 50 percent or more of the credit points in which the student is enrolled in a trimester
- Not being able to complete his/her course within the maximum period of study defined by the Academic Board or
- Not satisfying the requirements of any compulsory placements in a course.

Refer to the MIT Student Academic Progress Policy and Procedure for further information
